Summerville Police Officer Receives J.P. Strom Award

SUMMERVILLE, S.C. (February 16, 2017) – Summerville Police Officer Daniel Honan received the J.P. Strom Award at his graduation from the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy. Officer Honan graduated on February 10, 2017 from Basic Law Enforcement (BLE) Class 659.

The coveted J.P. Strom Award is given to the student who obtains the highest overall academic average during the BLE training program, including the successful completion of all performance tests. The 12-week program provides officer candidates the necessary knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform the duties of a certified law enforcement officer in the state of South Carolina.

“We could not be more delighted of his accomplishments,” said Chief of Police Jon Rogers. The Summerville Police Department has not had a J.P. Strom Award recipient since 1993. The award is named for longtime Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED).
