Town of Summerville Parks & Recreation to host free junior tennis clinics

Free program to give children opportunity to learn and enjoy tennis

SUMMERVILLE, S.C. – (Wednesday, July 11, 2018) Beginning Wednesday, July 18, 2018, children ages 6-14 are invited to take part in a free tennis clinic at Doty Park at 320 North Laurel St. From experienced players looking to improve for league or tournament play, to beginners wanting to learn more about the sport, all skill levels are welcome and encouraged to participate.

“I’m very excited to offer this program for our community’s youth,” Town of Summerville Tennis Pro, Nancy Sumersett, said. “I’ve played tennis since I was 10 years old. It provides kids with a chance to stay active, improve confidence, and a sense of accomplishment.”

The free clinic will be held every Wednesday from 5 – 6:30 p.m. Future dates and times are subject to change. Players are asked to wear tennis shoes and a hat, bring water or a sports drink, and a racquet. Town staff will have limited racquets available for use.
